The University Club of Washington, D.C. Hosts Ambassador of Poland for Discussion of Poland – U.S. Relations

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 22, 2023 - The University Club of Washington, D.C. hosted Ambassador Magierowski. In addition to his distinguished diplomatic career, he held several different positions as an experienced journalist and columnist prior to his appointment as Poland's highest-ranking diplomat to the United States.

At the Club he spoke with experience and candor regarding the importance of continuing to foster strong military and diplomatic ties between Europe and the United States.

The University Club boasts one of the most internationally diverse membership portfolios of all private clubs in America, hosting many US and foreign diplomats and Ambassadors as members.

We sincerely thank Ambassador Magierowski for his candid presentation and professional view of the current state of international affairs. Within our atmosphere of intellectual pursuits, Ambassador Magierowski's insights provided opportunities for members to better appreciate the importance of strengthening solidarity with our European partners.

The University Club of Washington, D.C. expresses its gratitude to Ambassador Magierowski for sharing his insights and accomplishments with our community. [
